

Subject: History Year 7 Ability All

Term / Date(s)	Unit 1	Unit 2	Unit 3	Unit 4	Unit 5
Topic	Ancient Greece	Ancient Rome	Norman Conquest	Medieval Life	Migration through Time
Topic overview	Students will understand the nature of ancient civilisations by looking at the significance of Ancient Greek society and its achievements.	Students will understand the nature of ancient civilisations by looking at the rise of the Roman Empire and the consequences of its fall.	Students will learn about the development of Church, state and society in Medieval Britain 1066-1509 through a study of the Norman invasion of England and the changes that William brought.	Students will learn about the development of Church, state and society in Medieval Britain 1066-1509.	Students will learn about the migration to and from the British Isles through selected case studies though time.

Subject: History Year 8 Ability All

Term / Date(s)	Half term 1	Half term 2	Half term 3	Half term 4	Half term 5	Half term 6
Topic	Renaissance and Reformation	Early Modern Witch Trials	Industrial Revolution	British Empire	Slavery	Civil Rights Movement
Topic overview	Students will learn about the development of Church, state and society in Britain 1509-1745 by exploring the key changes that took place in the Renaissance period including the changes to science and religion.	Students will understand the key features of the Early Modern Witch trials.	Students will learn about ideas, political power, industry and empire: Britain, 1745-1901 including the social, political and economic changes that took place in Britain during the Industrial Revolution. A local history study.	Students will learn about ideas, political power, industry and empire: Britain, 1745-1901: A depth study of the British Empire including case studies of the different parts of the Empire.	Students will study a significant society or issue in world history and its interconnections with other world developments by learning about the key features of the Trans-Atlantic slave trade and its abolition in Britain and America.	Students will study a significant society or issue in world history and its interconnections with other world developments by understanding the key features of the Civil Rights movement in America.

Subject: History Year 9 Ability All

Term / Date(s)	WW1	Russian Revolution	Interwar America	WW2	Holocaust
Topic	WW1	Russian Revolution	Interwar America	WW2	Holocaust
Topic Overview	Students will learn about the challenges for Britain, Europe and the wider world 1901 to the present day by studying the causes of WW1, the key features of trench warfare, and the impact of WW1 on people.	Students will study a significant society or issue in world history and its interconnections with other world developments by studying the causes and consequences of the Russian Revolution.	Students will study of a significant society or issue in world history and its interconnections with other world developments. The social, political and economic changes that took place in America during the 1920s and 30s.	Students will learn about the challenges for Britain, Europe and the wider world 1901 to the present day by studying the significance of the key events of WW2.	Students will learn about the challenges for Britain, Europe and the wider world 1901 to the present day by studying the events preceding, during and consequences of the Holocaust including an examination of its significance.

--	--	--	--	--	--

Subject: History Year 10 Ability All

Term / Date(s)	Paper 1	Paper 3
Topic	Edexcel - Medicine in Britain c1250–present, and The British sector of the Western Front, 1914–18: injuries, treatment, and the trenches.	Edexcel - Weimar and Nazi Germany, 1918–39
Topic overview	Students will have an overview of the impact that improved knowledge, understanding and technology has had on medicine in Britain from 1250 onwards. In the linked historic environment, students learn about the relationship between conditions on the Western Front and their impact on the nature of illness and the provision of medical care, within the broader context of developments in medicine in the early twentieth century.	Students will learn how between the First and Second World Wars, a democratic Germany became a one-party dictatorship. Students will examine various political, economic, social, and cultural aspects of this change from a democratic to a one-party state.

Subject: History Year 11 Ability All

Term / Date(s)	Paper 2	Paper 2
Topic	Edexcel - The American West, c1835–c1895	Edexcel - Early Elizabethan England, 1558–88
Topic overview	Students will complete a period study of the American West in the time spanning 1835-1895 including the early settlement of the West, development of the Plains and conflict and conquest.	Students will have an depth study of Early Elizabethan England including the interplay of social, economic, political, religious and military aspects of her reign.